INTRODUCTION

Article on Candradimuka: Journal of Education is 5-15 pages and uploaded in MS Word format. A maximum of 16 words are used as the title of the article.

Article is divided by category; (1) research article, (2) technical article, (3) conceptual article, (4) case studies, (5) literature reviews, and (5) general reviews. The article is written in an arrangement consisting of Introduction, Method, Results and Discussion, Conclusion, Reference, and Appendix (if necessary). A way to write the chapter title following this template is by selecting the available style, i.e., Heading 1.

The author must ensure that his/her writing does not contain plagiarism. Articles that have been published as proceedings are not accepted for publication in Candradimuka: Journal of Education without going through a further process to complete the paper and the final research data.

Use this template by utilizing style or immediately copy and paste for an ease of writing your article. The writing of very specific terms uses italics.

METHOD

Explain the process of implementing research activities. It also explains who the subject, place and location of the research is, research methods or strategies used in achieving the expected goals and stages of research activities. The planning process and strategies/methods are presented in the form of flowcharts.

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

Result

The stages involved in the research, the concept development or the case resolution are written in the methodology section.

Mathematical equations must be numbered sequentially and begin with (1) until the end of the paper including the appendix. This numbering must be started and ended with open and close brackets and written in the align text right. Add a blank line above and below the equation.

$$FV = \frac{(CU+CL)}{2n}$$

The nomenclature of a mathematical equation is written in a separate section after the Reference.

Table

Information in the table is given above the table. Information is written in lowercase except for the first character in each sentence. All figures must be numbered sequentially. The table is placed in the left aligned. The font size used is 10 pt.

An example of making a table can be seen in Table 1 and Table 2. If the contents of the table are from a particular source, mention it at the bottom of the table with the font size 9 pt.

Discussion

Discuss the results of the research and theoretical discussions that are relevant to the results. The discussion on the results should be strengthened by references and theoretical perspectives supported by the relevant review literature.

CONCLUSION

Explain the results of the research in the form of theoretical reflections and recommendations.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

If any, please write in this section. Acknowledgment is only related to the source of research funding by writing down the contract number.

REFERENCES

References are written according to the APA (American Psychological Association) 7th edition format. References are listed alphabetically. References only include literature that has been cited in the text. Check reference details to actual sources. The author is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the references. Avoid using more than 40 and less than 10 references. Articles must consist of 70% journal references and 30% book references. Journal references must be published at least the last 5 years. Authors are strongly advised to use applications, such as Zotero, Endnote, and Mendeley to create bibliography and citations.
