Prompt: You will write a poem expressing your feelings about life at school or about a specific class. Your audience is a classroom of your peers. The language must be school/classroom appropriate—although you can express your dislike for a particular class or school.

Rule 1: You CANNOT target teachers or classmates in your poem. NO NAMES.

Rule 2: You MUST use figurative language (metaphor, simile, personification)

Rule 3: You MUST include at least one sound device (rhyme, alliteration, onomatopoeia, etc.).
