

Rules & Regulations

First of all, thank you so much for using my scripts! I do my best to try and deliver the best I can (even if most of these are written as my kind of stress relief), so seeing you check my things out really makes me happy!

- 1) Please credit me! You can credit me using my reddit account: u/FondantUnusual460 I really want to see your work, so please don't hesitate to reach out to me and use my stuff. All I ask is that you credit me.
- 2) Changing names, pronouns, sound effects and making minor adjustments are okay, but please do not alter my script to make it sound sexist, racist, bigoted, or otherwise offensive.
- 3) Paywalling my scripts is permissible, but if you do make an audio, I would appreciate it if I had access to it.

If you want to commission me to write a specific script, please DM me and we can sort out a price depending on the length and content of the ASMR script. Thank you so much, and good luck, I can't wait to see what you create! If you have any questions, or anything you need, please don't hesitate to DM me.
