CONTENT AREA & TEACHER		TOPICS COVERED	UPCOMING ASSESSMENTS
FRENCH	French I • Engleman brigitte.engleman@lcps.org	Students reviewed conjugations of regular -ER verbs. A couple of exceptions for -GER and -CER verbs were explored. Due to snow closures, the test on -ER verbs and question formation has been rescheduled.	The major summative on -ER verbs and question formation is rescheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 23 (B) and Wednesday, Jan. 24 (A). A notebook check (a minor summative) will also be conducted.
	French II • Engleman brigitte.engleman@lcps.org	The imperative mood in the present tense, as it pertains to reflexive verbs, was explored. Notebook checks were conducted.	There are no assessments planned for this week.
GERMAN	German I • Suchanek Ulrike.Suchanek@lcps.org	Using the vocab list, students will create vocab posters. Over four classes, they will be quizzed on these vocab posters. These four quizzes and a test will be combined into a Major Vocab Assessment. Students will also learn to say what they like to do in their freetime.	2/2/24 Major Vocab Assessment
