This tailor-made workshop covers everything from trust-building to candid communication, role clarity to mutual accountability, and a shared commitment to an inspiring mission.

Features:

1. Expert Guidance from Rex - Benefit from Rex's wealth of experience and unique perspective as a former professional athlete, as he shares invaluable insights and best practices for cultivating a winning team mentality.
2. Customized Workshop Design - Our team will work closely with you to create a workshop that addresses your team's specific needs and objectives. Choose from over 20 proven tools developed by Rex to ensure your workshop experience is engaging, impactful, and tailored to your unique requirements.
3. Trust and Communication Exercises - Participate in carefully crafted activities that foster open and honest communication, helping to build deeper trust and understanding among team members. These exercises will equip your team with the skills needed for candid and constructive dialogue, enabling them to navigate challenges and conflicts effectively.
4. Role Clarity and Accountability - Our workshop will help your team members understand their roles and responsibilities, as well as the roles of their colleagues. This enhanced clarity will promote a culture of mutual accountability, empowering your team to work together seamlessly and efficiently.
5. Commitment to a Compelling Mission - Rediscover and reinforce your team's shared purpose through interactive exercises and discussions. Our workshop will help your team members develop a common commitment to your organization's compelling mission, fueling their motivation and driving them toward success.

6. Stunning River Rose Venue - Our 19-acre property at River Rose provides the perfect setting for your team to absorb and practice the lessons learned during the workshop. The picturesque surroundings will inspire your team and offer a relaxing atmosphere to encourage bonding and camaraderie.
7. Ongoing Support and Development - Beyond the workshop, Rex and our team will provide ongoing support and resources to help your team continue to excel, ensuring the positive changes and improvements are sustainable over time.

Invest in your team's growth and success with our Elevate and Excel Workshop. Under Rex's expert guidance and with our tailored approach, your team will develop the skills, mindset, and cohesion necessary to achieve outstanding performance and overcome any obstacles that come their way.
