SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT 2024-2025

Carlisle ISD and the parents of students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the state's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year 2023-2024.

Required School-Parent Compact Provisions

As staff members of your child's school, we will:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables your child the ability to meet the state's student academic achievement standards.
- Provide a supportive and effective learning environment that enables children to meet the State's academic achievement standards by providing after-school tutoring, small groups, etc.
- Conduct multiple opportunities for parent-teacher conferences to discuss your child's achievement. Parent-teacher conferences will also be held upon request of the teacher(s), parent(s), administration, or counselor.
- Provide copies of your child's progress through 3 weeks reports and 9 weeks report cards as well as through our Skyward Family Portal.
- Provide parents with reasonable access to staff. Ensure that staff is available for consultation with parents as follows: during their planning period, scheduled parent-teacher conferences, through email or phone during their normal scheduled hours
- Provide instruction in a way that will motivate and encourage your child.
- Provide a safe and positive environment for learning.
- Monitor attendance, homework, and grades.
- Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child's education.

Parent Responsibilities

As parents, will support our child's learning in the following ways:

- Communicate with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or school district.
- Communicate with my child's teacher through notes, email, telephone calls, or conferences to show an active interest in my child's education.
- Provide a time and a place for quiet study and reading at home.
- Attend school functions and other parent and family engagement activities.
- Provide my child the necessary resources and materials to be successful in school.

Student Responsibilities

As students, we will take personal responsibility of our academic achievement by:

- Being present at school every day.
- Entering class on time and prepared to work.
- Completing all assignments and homework to the best of my ability.
- Asking for assistance when things are unclear to me.
- Showing respect to everyone on my campus by following our campus discipline policy and school expectations.
- Sharing our class, school, and district news and events with my parents.
- Understanding that I am responsible for my own actions and my future.

Parent and Student Responsibilities for Cellular Phone Usage

- Think before acting, stay safe, take responsibility for my actions, and take care of my cellular phone. I understand that using a phone is a privilege and a responsibility.
- Use my phone to call people I am only allowed to call.
- Not forward mean or inappropriate texts or pictures.
- Get permission to download any apps. Parents will become knowledgeable about the apps that are being used.
- Report anything I see or receive that is inappropriate or that makes me feel unsafe or uncomfortable.

Attendance Responsibilities for Parents and Students
