

2025 NEASIST Annual Conference:

Voices Through Data:

Integrating Information Science, Storytelling, and Digital Literacy

Tuesday, April 1, 2025, 9:00 am - 1:15 pm (Eastern Daylight Time: GMT -4:00)

9:00 am - 9:15 am

Welcome, NEASIST Chapter Update, and Conference Overview

9:15 am - 10:00 am
Keynote

Storytelling Wisdom and Information Research

- Kate McDowell, School of Information Sciences at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

10:00 am - 10:30 am
Presentation I

Long COVID and American Healthcare: Bolstering Social and Emotional Support

- Deborah Garwood, Drexel University

10:30 am - 11:00 am
Presentation II

Dear Data (Literacy): A Multimodal Creative Campus Project

- Halie Kerns, Binghamton University
- Ruth Carpenter, Binghamton University

11:00 am - 11:30 am
Panel

Hawaiian Plantation Employee Records: A Multi-Disciplinary Exploration of Hawai'i's History

- Sonia Pacheco, UMass Dartmouth
- Chelsea Fernandes, UMass Dartmouth
- Catherine Titzer, Stanford University

11:30 am - 11:45 am

Break

11:45 am - 12:15 pm
Presentation III

Will not be recorded*

Faith in Data

- Daria Hafner, Wellesley College
- Sarah Moazeni, Wellesley College

12:15 pm - 12:25 pm
Lightning Talk

Visualizing Emotional Trends in Oral History Archives: A Case Study of MOCA

- Murphy Yueer Sun, Pratt Institute

12:25 pm - 1:10 pm
Workshop

The People Behind Named Places: Getting Creative with Civic Data

- Meral Agish, Queen Public Library, Queens Memory Project
- Mary Bakija, Queen Public Library, Queens Memory Project
- David Engelman, Queen Public Library, Queens Memory Project
- Jessica Sucher, Queen Public Library, Queens Memory Project

1:10 - 1:15 pm

Concluding Remarks