

Editorial Services Guide

Every manuscript is different, and not every author needs the same level of feedback. Whether you're looking for a high-level assessment of your manuscript or detailed, scene-level revision guidance, we offer three levels of editorial support to meet you where you are in the writing process.

Targeted Developmental Assessment

Best For

- First-time novelists
- Authors with limited craft training
- Writers who know something isn't working but aren't sure where to begin
- Manuscripts with significant story, structure, or character challenges

What You'll Receive

- Executive Summary
- Editorial Report
- Prioritized Revision Recommendations
- Post-Edit Consultation Call

What You'll Walk Away With

A clear understanding of the handful of issues having the greatest impact on your manuscript and a practical plan for addressing them.

Investment

$0.029/word (minimum $1,000)

Strategic Developmental Edit

Best For

- Authors who have completed a full draft and are preparing for serious revision
- Writers seeking a comprehensive analysis of their manuscript
- Authors who want to strengthen every major component of their story

What You'll Receive

- Comprehensive Developmental Editorial Report
