

How to watch Star Wars: The Bad Batch online from anywhere

Trying to watch Star Wars: The Bad Batch? This Star Wars animated series is only available to stream on one region-locked platform. However, below, we'll let you know how to stream The Bad Batch online, from anywhere, using a VPN.

Star Wars: The Bad Batch* will premiere on Tuesday, May 4. A spinoff from Star Wars: The Clone Wars, it will kick off with a special 70-minute episode, and another releasing on Friday, May 7. All subsequent episodes will come out on a weekly basis. Note that Star Wars: The Bad Batch will air exclusively on a single geo-restricted streaming service. As such, you may need a VPN if you want to watch it while traveling abroad.

We'll only be recommending official sources for watching Star Wars: The Bad Batch.

Unlicensed streams aren't worth your time due to their low resolution. You'll likely find your streaming experience to be interrupted with lag and buffering. Furthermore, some unauthorized streams will be taken offline without warning for violating copyright. The only way to have a legal, high-quality stream of Star Wars: The Bad Batch is by using the official source detailed below.

Star Wars: The Bad Batch* will only be shown on one geo-restricted streaming platform. To continue using this streaming service while traveling abroad, you'll need to connect to a VPN.

How to watch Star Wars: The Bad Batch online with a VPN

So what is a VPN and how does it help you watch Star Wars: The Bad Batch from anywhere? Simply, these services allow you to connect to a server in another country. In doing so, you're assigned a different IP address so you can spoof your location and bypass geographic restrictions.

Here's how to live stream Star Wars: The Bad Batch from abroad using a VPN:

1. Sign up with a VPN that unblocks Disney+. We recommend NordVPN although Surfshark and ExpressVPN are two high-quality alternatives.
2. The next step is to download the VPN app for the device on which you want to stream Star Wars: The Bad Batch.
3. Open the VPN app and connect to a server in a country in which Disney+ is available. For example, the US.
4. Now you can go to Disney+ and select an episode of Star Wars: The Bad Batch. It should now be unblocked in your location.
5. If this doesn't work, try clearing your browser's cache and cookies. You could also try connecting to another server. Otherwise, try contacting your VPN's customer support.
