

¡Hola, chicos!

Use this as a place to copy and paste any helpful, reliable, sites you have found to help with your country projects. Please include a brief description of what type of information can be found at the link under it, as well as your name.

Example:

<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/>

This is a good site to find all sorts of up-to-date facts about your country.

-Señora Harris

Good luck chicos! from Mr. Johnson

www.gov

this is a great site. It has all the categories on the requirement list.

~Alex McKinley

Try <http://travel.nationalgeographic.com/travel/>

It's great for pictures and interesting stories.

~Devon Kleinheksel

try <http://www.everyculture.com/>

it has a lot of info about family culture.

~Vanessa Simons

Thank you Vanessa this website is great!

~Devon Kleinheksel

<http://www.centralamerica.com/>

for people with central American countries.

Emilia Dos

<http://www.braser.com/spanish-information.html>

Looks legit to me :)

http://www.google.com/url?q=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.braser.com%2Fspanish-information.html&a=D&sntz=1&usq=AFQjCNEO_5qBYSJW5pSKP-7Su1hWvXiX4Q

~Emilia Dos

<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world>

Wolds news.

~Olivia

Try going to google looking up your country and clicking on news.

Good for really recent news

~Devon Kleinheksel

<http://www.google.com>

excellente website, highly recommend it!!!

PePe was not here (~ the ninja)

GOOGLE DOES NOT COUNT, PEPE!!!! -Sra. Har

http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/cis/cis_994.html

<http://traveltips.usatoday.com/major-tourist-attractions-panama-1115.html>

two websites that have current events(:

-Hanne Greene

<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/geos/nu.html>

This website has information on the government, geography about your country and more.

~Amber Staniulis

<http://www.worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/namerica/caribb/pr.htm>

This website Describes on the history and has good pictures

~Brett Lavoie

<http://www.climate-zone.com/climate/puerto-rico/fahrenheit/san-juan-intl-arpt.htm>

This website gives weather averages for all 12 months

~Brett Lavoie

http://www.bbc.co.uk/search/news/equatorial_guinea

this is for people that can't find anything on there country

-andrew.david

<http://travel.nationalgeographic.com/travel/countries/bolivia-facts/> and y also

<http://www.languagecrossing.com/>

a study abroad site 8) Jerry

A good site for History is

http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/americas/country_profiles/1225471.stm

~Drew VanderWall

<http://www.culturecrossing.net/index.php>

good for culture. has everything listed in one place. -Nate

<http://www.afsusa.org/host-family/countries/>

Another great site for family and culture-nate

<http://www.britannica.com/EBchecked/topic/413855/Nicaragua/277496/Daily-life-and-social-customs>

this website has some good informations and really cool pictures ~amber

www.mapsoftheworld.com

this has some very very helpful information that Amber and i found!!

~Hanne

<http://www.history-timelines.org.uk>

Has good information if you are doing your history part of your project, it is very organized and has the history of your country on a timeline

~Yazan Chabti

I would have to agree with nate!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! -Drew

And Matt