1. INTRODUCTION (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

This section provides an overview of the study, including the statement of the problem, objectives and significance of the study. The significance of the study should relate to the conference theme.

2. MATERIALS AND METHODS (headlines: TNR, Bold, 12pt)

The methodology must be clearly stated and described in sufficient detail or with sufficient references.

3. RESULTS (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

This section presents the processed data and analysis of the study, supported with figures, tables, graphs or images. References (if any) of the tables, figures and images should be presented right under the tables, figures and images in the form of author surname and publication date.

4. DISCUSSION (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

The major findings and arguments of the work should be explicitly described. Discussion should directly answer the objectives, citing the analysis as presented in the “Results” section. Proper citation is expected to be strictly followed.

The last paragraph of this section should discuss the implications of the study in relation to the conference theme.

5. CONCLUSION (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

Conclusions should be specific and address the objectives of the study.

6. RECOMMENDATION (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

This section includes three (3) major recommendations.

7. ACKNOWLEDGMENT (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

The section recognizes the support of people, organizations or institutions to the study.

8. REFERENCES (headlines: TNR Bold, 12pt)

References should be listed arranged in alphabetical order beginning with the author's names and initials, followed by the year of publication, title of periodical, volume and page. Example:

Parlange, J.Y., R. Haverkamp and J. Touma. 1985. Infiltration under ponded condition: 1. Optimal analytical solution and comparison with experimental observation. Soil Sci., 139: 305-311. In the text, references should be cited with the name of the author(s) with the year of publication in parenthesis, e.g., Philip (1957), Taylor and Baker (1986), Smith et al. (1987).
