

President: Commander in chief and head of the government of the United States.

Vice President: Be ready if the president cannot perform the duties.

Secretary of Agriculture: Develops and manages policies on farming, agriculture, food safety, forest service.

Secretary of Commerce: Supports business, industry, trade, technology.

Secretary of Defense: Manages the military to protect the country.

Secretary of Education: Works to improve quality of education and promote student achievement.

Secretary of Energy: Works to develop reliable and clean energy.

Secretary of Health and Human Service: Works to prevent disease outbreaks and to keep food and medicine safe.

Secretary of Homeland Security: Works to prevent attacks to our country and watches our borders.

Secretary of the Interior: Protects our natural resources, fish and wildlife.

Secretary of Justice: Enforces laws and tries to keep people safe. The FBI is part of this.

Secretary of Labor: Works to provide jobs, training and safe working environment.

Secretary of State: Visits foreign countries to help keep peace in the world.

Secretary of Transportation: Helps to build safe and fast transportation, highways and bridges.

Secretary of Treasury: Makes coins and paper money and collects taxes.

Secretary of Veteran Affairs: Helps military veterans.

Senator: Represents the state where they come from but also works to improve the country writing bills and budgets.

House of Representatives: Works to improve their home district and improve the country
Writes bills and controls money

Supreme Court Justice: Decides the meaning of a law in certain cases and how it should be used.