

New Communicative English Privacy Policy

Thank you for using “New Communicative English”, a free app designed for children without advertisements. This Privacy Policy outlines how we handle data within our application.

1. Information We Collect:

User-Provided Information: “New Communicative English” does not collect any personally identifiable information from users. We recognize the importance of children's privacy and adhere to strict data collection limitations.

Automatically Collected Information: “New Communicative English” may collect non-personal information such as device type, operating system version, and device identifiers to improve app performance and enhance the user experience.

2. Use of Collected Information:

We use automatically collected information for app optimization, troubleshooting, and overall improvement.

3. Advertising:

“New Communicative English” is an ad-free application, and we do not integrate any advertising networks.

4. Children's Privacy:

“New Communicative English” is explicitly designed for children and complies with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). We do not knowingly collect or store personal information from children under 13 years of age.

5. Data Security:

We prioritize data security and implement industry-standard measures to protect user information.

6. Changes to this Privacy Policy:

“New Communicative English” reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy periodically. Users will be notified of any significant changes.
