Lore:

Kongo is a former soldier serving the US military during the Abyssal Conflict that took place from 2012-2018. She was the only Fleet Girl born without the geas attached to her soul that prevented her from harming humans. She showed her boundless cruelty as revenge for what her sisters went through, and took part in the destruction of the Old World with Ezra. She became the third founding member of Rena Corps and one of its most feared leaders. Kongo is known for her brutality in battle and lack of restraint when it comes to large fights, she is a hulking abomination that enjoys the sight of a squashed corpse.
