A single-member unit led by and containing only KAGAMI \(Luka Clément\). The unit rarely interacts with its fans, and when it does, it is brief. The unit leader, KAGAMI, has never publicly shown their face or revealed their name, staying anonymous. The concept revolves around ideas of mental health, abuse, and other sensitive topics. The unit is relatively popular, but mostly staying in the shadows.

It is affiliated with Rhythm Link.

requiem means ‘an act or token of remembrance’ or ‘a Mass for the repose of the souls of the dead.’ Kagami (鏡) is Japanese for ‘mirror.’

The reason Luka hides their identity is because of a desire to separate his ‘off-stage’ persona and their ‘on-stage’ persona. Both are Luka, but the goal of stripping themselves of their identity is to become a blank slate. A ‘proxy’ of sorts. The topics they sing and perform about are all ways for any one of their fans to relate and project themselves onto this blank slate they created and feel a little more seen.

Anyway, here's some fun stuff.
