

“We promise not to promise anything we can’t promise.”

Nowadays, banks are trying to fool us, take our money and try to catch us with apps, benefits, and good support, but we all know this is a simple trick and we are all fooled by them.

Expect the expected.

Commissions , bank rates...but we don’t have any solution, we need them and they are all the same, right? WRONG!

We made a private bank to fix those issues and provide you anything you need and escape from those “scams”.

Hyposwiss private bank

“In Private Banking, it’s time for common sense to be more common.”

Hyposwiss provides financial services, advisory and wealth management to its private clients – as well as its experience in securities and foreign exchange trading.
