

British Accounting and Finance Association, Accounting Education Special Interest Group (BAFA AE-SIG)

Executive Board Elections are to be held in person at the Annual General Meeting during the annual conference in Leeds from 22-24 May 2024 (exact date and time tba).

Nominations are sought for the following posts on the Executive Committee of the BAFA AE-SIG:

- Chairperson
- Vice-chairperson
- Secretary
- Editorial advisor

In addition, expressions of interest are required for three co-opted positions.

To be nominated for election you must be a member of the British Accounting and Finance Association and of the British Accounting and Finance Association Accounting Education Special Interest Group (BAFA AE-SIG). All committee members will have an active role but the executive may need to allocate new roles or reallocate them between elections.

In the interests of transparency, the current Vice-chairperson and Editorial advisor intend to re-stand for election, as do two of the co-opted committee members. The current chairperson will remain on the committee as the immediate past chairperson, as per the constitution.

Nominations for all posts (elected and co-opted) should be e-mailed to the undersigned Chair (copied to Secretary) before 12:00 (noon) on 5th May 2024. Nominations should include details of how the nominee has been involved in the accounting education community and what areas of expertise they would bring to the committee.

The attached table shows the current members of the BAFA AE-SIG Committee. Please contact any of the of the current committee if you wish to talk to us about possible roles and membership.
