

Describe a surprise that you have had recently. Say: What happened, Where it happened, Who you were with or if you were alone, and Why you were so surprised.

Before you begin, write down any vocabulary that you will need to tell this story.

Do NOT write full sentences. Just write down useful vocabulary words.

If you don't know the word in English, you may use a dictionary, ask your teacher, or ask your classmates.

Describe a surprise that you have had recently. Say: What happened, Where it happened, Who you were with or if you were alone, and Why you were so surprised.

Before you begin, write down any vocabulary that you will need to tell this story.

Do NOT write full sentences. Just write down useful vocabulary words.

If you don't know the word in English, you may use a dictionary, ask your teacher, or ask your classmates.

Homework. Write the story:

Describe a surprise that you have had recently. Say: What happened, Where it happened, Who you were with or if you were alone, and Why you were so surprised.

[illegible]

