TagProReplays Privacy Policy

Last updated: 2021/12/13

TagProReplays developers ("we", "us") respect your right to privacy. This privacy policy ("policy") outlines the terms between us and you, the TagProReplays ("extension") user. By using the extension you agree that we can collect, use, disclose, and process information according to this policy.

The extension may occasionally collect information. Examples of information that may be collected include:
1. Number of saved replays
2. Usage statistics (e.g. when was the menu opened, when a replay is recorded, what options are used most often)
3. Replay statistics (e.g. how long are replays, how often are replays downloaded, how big are replays)
4. Extension information (e.g. version)
5. Browser version
6. Operating system
7. General location (e.g. city, state, country)

This information may be shared with third-parties that provide analytics services (e.g. Google, Mixpanel). The information will be used by us in order to:
1. Analyze trends in usage of the extension
2. Facilitate decision-making regarding ongoing development
3. Troubleshoot errors/bugs

The use of information received from Google APIs will adhere to the Chrome Web Store User Data Policy, including the Limited Use requirements.

As the extension is updated so too may this privacy policy. In such circumstances the date at the top of this policy will be updated to reflect the last update.
