

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions

This page provides clear information about what Digital Profit Vibes is, how it works, and what users should expect. The goal is transparency and informed decision-making.

What is Digital Profit Vibes?

Digital Profit Vibes is an independent educational website that provides access to a structured digital business framework known as Legacy Builder 2.0.

Is Digital Profit Vibes a company or a course?

It is not a standalone company or traditional course. It functions as an informational and educational access point to a third-party framework that includes education, systems, and guided implementation.

What is Legacy Builder 2.0?

Legacy Builder 2.0 is a guided digital business framework designed to teach how modern online income systems are structured, implemented, and scaled using automation and digital tools.

Does this guarantee income or results?

No. This is an education-based model. Results vary and depend on individual effort, consistency, skill development, and external factors.

Is this passive income or a get-rich-quick program?

No. Participation requires learning and ongoing implementation. It is not passive on day one and does not promise fast or guaranteed results.

Who is this for?

This framework is intended for beginners, professionals, and career-switchers who are willing to learn and apply structured systems over time.

Why is an email required to access more information?

Email is used to provide access to a private overview that explains the framework, expectations, and next steps in detail.

Is my information shared or sold?

No. Personal information is handled according to the site's privacy policy and is not sold.

How should I decide if this is right for me?

Review the overview carefully, understand the effort required, and determine whether the framework aligns with your goals and learning style.

*Digital Profit Vibes is an education-based platform. Outcomes vary and depend on individual effort and application.