The next winter was very hard for all the horses. The weather was terrible. There was rain every day and it was often windy. Some of the drivers were very poor, so their horses worked all night. Other horses didn't have stables. They stayed out all night and got wet and cold. I was lucky because Jerry was a kind owner and I was always put in a warm stable.

One day Jerry and I waited for work next to a park. I watched as an old carriage drove up next to us. It was pulled by a horse who was thin and looked tired. I looked again and saw that it was my old friend, Ginger. She looked terrible. We walked for a short time. Ginger was very unhappy. She had had many different homes and worked very hard. All her owners were unkind to her and treated her badly. "You are my only friend" Ginger told me before her owner drove her away. I understood that I had a much better life than many other horses.
