2 Sets

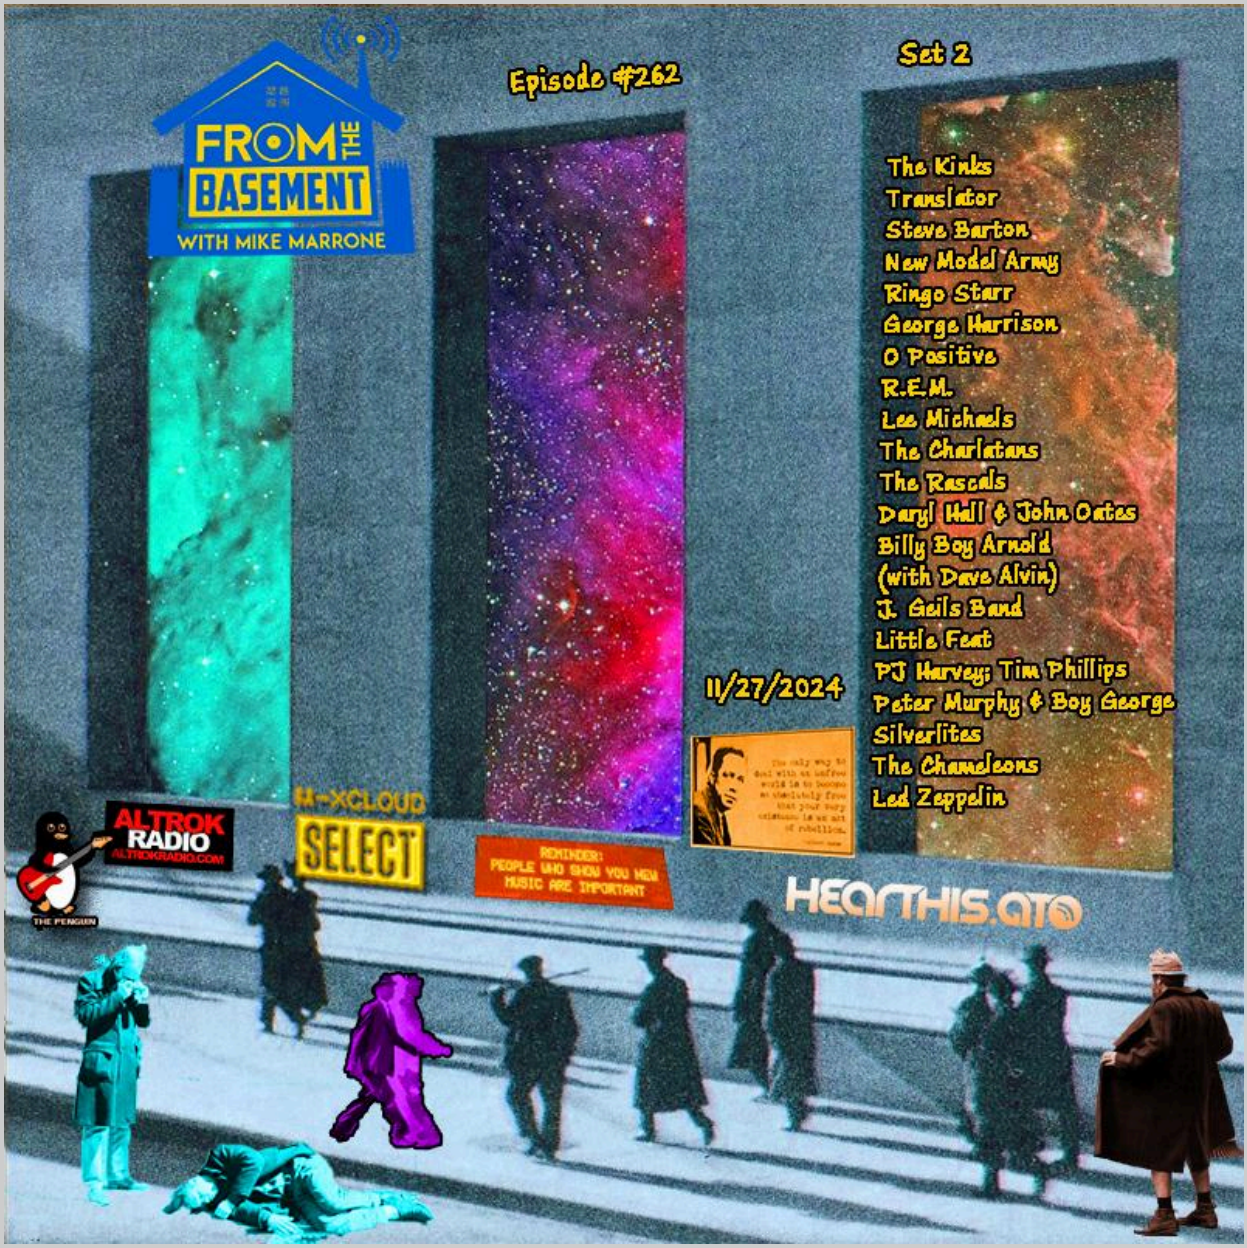

As Robert Plant once asked during Led Zeppelin's heyday, "Does anyone remember laughter?" Take a good look around as we hurtle toward the close of the first quarter of the Century, it is a worthy exercise. Think a minute, do you? Better yet, have you laughed enough lately? Well I certainly haven't, and going forward that is exactly what my focus will be trained on, laughing more, worrying less and trying to wring every last drop of joy I can out of whatever time remains.

This set begins with a pair of tunes from Jon Batiste's brilliant new offering, and includes a few other new things from The The, Ryan Adams and Peter Perrett of Only Ones fame.

Jon Batiste	-	Symphony No. 5 Stomp

Gil Scott-Heron	-	Winter In America
Gil Scott-Heron	-	Me And The Devil
David Bowie	-	I'm Afraid Of Americans (Nine Inch Nails VI Mix)
Stevie Wonder	-	Too High
Steely Dan	-	Aja
Richard Swift	-	The Original Thought
Grant Lee Buffalo	-	Truly, Truly
Peter Perrett	-	I Wanna Go With Dignity

There are more new releases found in this set, including Ringo Starr (with Alison Krause and produced by T Bone Burnett), George Harrison, Steve Barton of Translator (one of the most under appreciated US bands from the 80's), a very interesting pairing of Peter Murphy and Boy George, P.J. Harvey updating Joy Division and new “supergroup” Silverlites (Barrett Martin, Rich Robinson, Peter Buck and Joseph Arthur).

Wishing everyone a wonderful Thanksgiving, and I am very thankful to all who have contributed to the program as I couldn’t do it without you. The link is always HERE. Stay safe and let’s make an effort to laugh more. Love to all.
