Older men who want to minimalist and travel

Solid construction, smart design, balance between storage space and portability and durability. Easy access to all pockets and items. Great for pickleball equipment and accessories. Solar powered charging is a nice feature.

Mark 39 years old.

Current situation

Looking for a new backpack that he can travel with or wear it everyday

Pains

The bags that he had they ripped apart because there durability what cheap

With the other bags it was hard to find his stuff he had to dig through the bag to find the thing he wanted

Some bags didn't have enough space

Kind of DIC

Hi Mark

Sorry for the wait, as I said I wasn't home.

Here is your Social Media post as I said.

Did someone say anything about a comfortable, smart design, easy-to-access bag?

Well, you are in the best place possible!

Our Ruk Essential Sling Pack has all the benefits above PLUS it has a solar-powered charging feature.

The best part is that it's on a 33% sale for a limited time !
