Please follow these formatting guidelines when preparing your extended abstract for submission to IYRCRSC-2025. Replace the placeholder text with your content as needed, without altering the margins or spacing of the document. Save the edited version in DOCX format and upload the file. Use 12-point Times New Roman font for the abstract, which should be written as a single paragraph. The word limit for abstract submission is 250. Ensure that all citations are complete and accurate. Citations should be numbered sequentially and enclosed in square brackets at the end of the relevant sentence, as shown here [1]. When citing multiple references, use the format [1]-[2]. At the beginning of a sentence, use “Ref. [3]” or “reference [3],” while within a sentence, simply use the reference number, like [3].
