

Freelance Course Facilitator

Join Scottish Ethnic Minority Autistics (SEMA), a Community Interest Company led by and for Autistic people with Black, Brown, Asian and other racialised identities.

We're looking for a Freelance Course Facilitator to deliver our Post Identification Support Course and facilitate regular online peer support sessions for SEMA members.

About the opportunity

- Freelance contract for approximately 20 hours per month, worked flexibly by agreement (including occasional evenings and weekends)
- £20 per hour
- Home-based in Scotland
- Contract until end of March 2027, funded through the Improving Access Fund (with the possibility of extension, subject to funding)

You will

- Deliver engaging online courses and facilitate learning.
- Organise course administration before and after each programme.
- Facilitate bi monthly online member check-ins based on themes chosen by participants.

We're looking for someone with

- Experience designing and delivering training or educational programmes.
- Experience facilitating online learning.
- Excellent communication, organisational and interpersonal skills.
- A flexible, empathetic and collaborative approach.

It would be an advantage if you

- Can communicate in a community language relevant to the people SEMA supports.
- Have experience working with racialised communities and/or Autistic or other neurodivergent people.

Who can apply?

This opportunity is open only to applicants who identify as Autistic and have a Black, Brown, Asian or other racialised identity. This is a Genuine Occupational Requirement under the Equality Act 2010.

Applicants must:

- Have the right to work in the UK (SEMA is unable to sponsor visas).
- Be responsible for their own tax, National Insurance and any other obligations associated with self-employment.

If you're passionate about creating inclusive spaces, empowering your community and supporting Autistic people, we'd love to hear from you.

To apply, please return the application form by 16th October to info@sema.scot
