

MCI Level 1 – Incident will require local resources and responding agencies. Incidents may require additional resources within the region.

- Size – 8 to 10 patients
- Hospitals – notification to local hospitals in area near location of incident
- Triage – patients identified as BLACK, GRAY, RED, YELLOW, GREEN following SALT Triage guidelines and primary injury/service needed (may be able to direct patients to specific area emergency departments with appropriate resources in small scale event)
- Communications – primary: phone; secondary: radio. The Communication Center will assign a Tactical channel for transport operations when necessary.

MCI Level 2 – Incident will require local resources and responding agencies. Incidents may require additional resources within the region.

- Size – 10 to 20 patients
- Hospitals – notification to local hospitals in area near location of incident and/or adjacent city or parishes
- Triage – patients identified as BLACK, GRAY, RED, YELLOW, GREEN following SALT Triage guidelines and primary injury/service needed (may be able to direct patients to specific area emergency departments with appropriate resources in small scale event)
- Communications – primary: phone; secondary: radio. The Communication Center will assign a Tactical channel for transport operations when necessary.

MCI Level 3 – Incident will require multiple regional resources and responding agencies. Incidents may require additional resources in adjacent regions.

- Size – 20 to 50 patients
- Hospitals – initial notification to all regional hospitals and/or adjacent regions
- Triage – patients identified as BLACK, GREY, RED, YELLOW, GREEN following SALT Triage guidelines
- Communications – Phone and radio communications. Incident command, operational officers, Communication Center will assign a Tactical channel for transport operations when necessary.