

Privacy Policy
Effective Date: 11 July 2024

Introduction

Welcome to the Pomodoro Timer Chrome extension. Your privacy is important to us, and we are committed to protecting it. This Privacy Policy explains our practices regarding the collection, use, and safeguarding of your information when you use our Chrome extension.

Information We Collect

We do not collect any personal information from users of the Pomodoro Timer extension. The extension operates entirely on your device, and no data is transmitted to us or any third party.

Permissions Used

To provide the functionality of the Pomodoro Timer, we request the following permissions:

contextMenus: To display options for starting, stopping, and resetting the timer directly from the browser's context menu.

alarms: To use interval functionality in the background script to create and manage the timer.

notifications: To send notifications when a Pomodoro session is complete.

These permissions are used solely to enable the features of the Pomodoro Timer and do not result in the collection or transmission of any personal data.

How We Use Your Information

Since we do not collect any personal information, we do not use your information in any way. The permissions requested are used solely for the functionality of the extension.

Sharing Your Information

We do not share any personal information with third parties because we do not collect any personal information.

Data Security

We take your privacy seriously and implement appropriate security measures to protect your information. Since no data is collected or transmitted, there is no risk of data breaches from our extension.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes.
