

College of Business Service-Learning and Volunteer Opportunities

Arkansas Asset Builders: Offering free income tax assistance (VITA) and financial literacy classes

Arkansas Citizens Climate League: Marketing and project management for a statewide conference on climate change

Arkansas Community Foundation / Faulkner County: Serving as a student board member

Audubon Arkansas: Conducting a cost assessment for grates on storm drains

Community Connections: Support for after-school programs for children with special needs, including marketing, volunteer management, and program evaluation

Conway Regional Hospital: Internships and ongoing volunteers in the Foundation, Marketing, and Human Resources departments

Conway Symphony Orchestra: Marketing/social media projects, such as creating a short promotional video using existing footage, creating monthly features of student musicians, managing a YouTube channel, and updating lobby display

The Go Store: Organizing and pricing inventory for thrift store and nonprofit use

Habitat for Humanity: Management, marketing, and accounting assistance in relaunching the Habitat ReStore, a nonprofit home improvement store and donation center

Literacy Action of Central Arkansas: Tutor ESL and adult literacy; service-learning projects could include leading a focused series (e.g., math education, financial literacy, soft skills), translating materials, recruiting, planning a tutor and/or student appreciation event; host a class; marketing, publicity, and social media

United Way of Central Arkansas: Offering free income tax assistance and working to launch a Financial Opportunity Center (developing curriculum, coaching, leading classes, etc.)