

The Beer Drinkin' Moose

Intro Drum Fill - Riff - F#,G,G (x8)

V1

G
There's a legendary tale,
C
that the locals all know well
G
In the scenic town of Grand Lake, D
up in the Colorado pines
G
Now if you think it sounds made up,
C grab a chair and a coffee cup
G
And listen to this story,
D G
as we sing between the lines

V2

G
There was a family from Milwaukee,
C
and they was campin' in the Rockies
G
They bought 7 cases of a Grand Lake Brew, D
from a liquor store in town
G
But they tripped on their own two feet,
C
and the beer spilled in the street
G
And this here moose walked up,
D G
and licked that beer right down

Chorus 1

(Bass walk Up - G,A,Bflat,B)

C
The beer drinkin' moose,
G
of Grand Lake, Colorado
C D
Don't come near...you best just stay away
D C
Cause there's trouble on the loose,
G
from a drunken mixed up moose
C
If you bother him,
D G
there's gonna be elk to pay

(Bass walk Up - G,A,Bflat,B)

V3

G
Well, the moose liked what he tasted,
C
and by now he was good and wasted
G
He stumbled on to a party boat,
D
for a cruise along the lake
G
But a fifteen hunnert pound drunk
C
was just too much, and that boat sunk
G
Everybody swam to shore,
D G
and they partied a little bit more...MISTAKE!
Gang Vocal - MISTAKE!

V4

G
After several more 6-packs,
C
they hung Christmas lights from his antler racks
G
They started taking selfies,
D
and post 'em on the Internet
G
But once the beer ran out,
C
the moose began to stomp and shout
G
He went moose nuts,
D G
and they ain't caught him yet

that's right,
Gang vocal - "MOOSE NUTS!"

Chorus 2

(Bass walk Up - G,A,Bflat,B)
C
The beer drinkin' moose,
G
of Grand Lake, Colorado
C D
Don't come near...you best just stay away
D C
Cause there's trouble on the loose,
G
from a drunken mixed up moose
C
If you bother him,
D G
there's gonna be elk to pay

(Bass walk Up - G,A,Bflat,B)

SOLO#2

V5 (quieter & holds)

G
Now, the moral of this story,
C
is you're better safe than sorry
G
So if you drop your beer
D -- tempo starts again
please clean up your spills
G
It's very hard to find,
C a 12-step program that is kind
G
Enough to help a beer drinkin' moose,
D G
with his substance abuse

Chorus 3

(Bass walk Up - G,A,Bflat,B)
C
The beer drinkin' moose,
G
of Grand Lake, Colorado
C D
Don't come near, you better just stay away
D C
Cuz there, ain't no excuse,
G
for party animals and drunken moose
C D
In Grand Lake, Colorado.....
