RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

Researchers need to inform several important (original) field data obtained from interviews, observations, questionnaires, surveys, documents, and other data collection techniques. The findings are presented in full and are related to the pre-determined scope of research. Findings can be supplemented with tables, graphs, and/or diagrams. Tables and figures are numbered and titled. Example:

Table 1. Article Structure Percentage

No.	Item	Percentage	Information
1.	Introduction	20%	Maximum
2.	Method	10%	Maximum
3.	Results and Dicsussion	60%	Maximum (Results) 20%, Minimum (Discussion) 40%
4.	Conclusion	10%	Approximately

Pictures, graphs, charts, schemes, or diagrams are numbered consecutively and the title below, with Garamond 12;

The result of data analysis is explained correctly in the article. The discussion part logically explains the findings, associated with the relevant sources.

CONCLUSION

Write succinctly and clearly the result of research then describe the logical consequence in developing science and praxis of Islamic education. (Conclusion is not indented and uses bolded Garamond 12).

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This section contains short sentence to express gratitude to specific person/people, institution(s), organization(s) that have an important role in conducting the study.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

All of the references mentioned in this section must be cited in the article and vice versa. The references are from the last 10 years of national/international reputable journals (minimum 80% of total references). The references are arranged based on alphabetical order. Reference lists are written in Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition (full note). Using reference manager application (e.g., Zotero, Mendeley, etc.) is strongly recommended to organize the citation and references.
