This is my story during my pursuit of Kuro, a key member to a sextortion cult called Harmnation... I am posting this since I saw a post regarding Harmnation from the past.

So. This is gonna be a very long story. Back in May, I was scrolling through this site called Teenchat, cuz I found it funny to troll on the site. And one day, someone pastes in a Discord link. Usually, it's just a cringy Discord link some kid makes in order to post memes, or it is a porn Discord from sick bastards who try to post porn to lure children... No wonder why everyone on that damn site seriously is sketchy people. But this one was different. It was basically a Discord site managed by some bastard named "Kuro" (he's actually a 22 year old Indian guy. He also goes by the alias "Adi," which is a shortened version of his real name) and a bunch of sexed up teenagers talking. At that time, I didn't know what was going on, til I entered the Discord subsection called "pics," where there were threads, each titled with various feminine screen names. In the threads were the inappropriate pictures of bloody girls. Not only that, these girls were very obviously underaged. Visibly too. Definitely not young looking adults. To make the matter worse, Kuro writes snarky comments regarding his victims, and even lists the damn contacts to a lot of them. The idiot also took screenshots of the convo he had with these minor aged girls in order to brag about how he "pulled" these girls... This was the 1st time in my life I ran across child pornography- nevermind very bloody child sexual abuse materials. So I immediately contacted the FBI and cybertip, and I had to visit a therapist twice cuz of the mental shock I got. But the FBI told me they'd contact me if they wanted more info.

A few days passed and nothing came from it, so I decided to personally contact the victims involved. The victims were obviously horrified when they realized what Kuro did with their pictures, and they gave me more information, which I recorded. They provided me with incriminating screenshots of their convo. And from their screenshots and also Kuro's own screenshots he took, I compiled them in a Google Drive folder, and from Kuro's messaging boards, I was able to track down and contact more of his victims. I gained their trust and I made a Discord server with me, some of my schoolfriends who were willing to help, some Discord predator catchers and all the victims we were able to reach. There, we organized all the information, and even catfished Kuro a number of times, thus finding out that he was an Indian man with a thick accent who primarily targeted white and Asian girls. Funny thing was he thought getting a "yes" from his brainwashed and mentally challenged minor victims was "consent" to post these pictures for all to see and to publicly humiliate them. We also learned he was part of the infamous HarmNation, a satanic Neo Nazi pedo cult ring(which explained the SS officer profile picture Kuro had on one of his many, many Discords, as well as him pretending to be a German boy in order to lure girls).

With all the info I had, I posted everything on Reddit. Unfortunately, it did not gather much traction, and I could not get much word out about him. I continued to update the FBI every few weeks, and urged the victims to come clean and tell their parents and the police about the situation. Understandably, many did not want their parents finding out, as many had quite poor and abusive relations with their parents. Some did not want the police involved, as they thought they would be liable for criminal arrest for spreading CP. Regardless, there were some girls who told their parents and got the love and care they needed.

From then on, we just updated info, deleted incorrect/outdated info and reached out to more girls, hoping somebody would do something and stop Kuro at his tracks. I started to contact news companies and YouTubers like Turkey Tom, Mutahar, Nick Crowley, etc. I started to post about this everywhere and even got my Reddit account banned as a result of me stupidly titling a post "Kuro's dox" Unfortunately, not all of the victims we allowed in could be trusted. Some victims actively believed Kuro cared for them, which was why they "loved" Kuro. These brainwashed girls not only told on the existence of a group trying to get rid of him constituted of teenagers and former victims, they also somehow managed to leak my personal phone number. The two main girls who are quite literally henchmen of Kuro lives in the USA. Thus, when their school starts, I will be making phone calls to their local police and school in order to deal with them. One of his henchgirls is a 14 year old girl from Eugene, Oregon who goes to Sheldon High School. Kuro makes his these henchgirls do his dirty work for him. Such as extorting other victims, being spies for him and introducing him to their friends... thus putting this girl's whole high school community at risk.

Kuro leaked my phone number in a Discord site, but thankfully, nothing came of it, and I believe he deleted the message with my phone number in it. But the victims became scared for their own safety, as they did not want their online mistakes hurting them in real life. So they are forced to stay quiet in fear of having their nudes sent to their schools and families by Kuro once he realizes someone is after him. But at this point, Kuro became scared for a second and issued an apology saying that he is sorry for hurting the girls so far, and that he will stop his hunt for teenage girls shortly after he became aware of us. But unfortunately, he retracted the statement claiming "whores" were allowed to have their privacy violated. And then he became cocky, showing off his real face in his PFP, and using his real name when he was grooming girls, since he found out he was virtually untouchable due to his location... He continues to this day to lurk Teenchat, Instagram, Discord self harm(sh), eating disorder(ED) and self harm twitter(shtwt) servers, and Twitter for mentally challenged white and Asian(but mostly white) girls. He extorts girls with threats of traveling to their location and causing bodily harm or dangles exposing private info they trusted in him in order to get them to carve "I am Kuro's slut" or something along that line on their bodies. He uses similar tactics to get them to send nudes and then posts them online. He sells the rest to other pedos... He is a master manipulator, though I cannot really say he is intelligent.

Oh before folks start asking if we tried the police, please note that the police from the UK, South Korea, USA, Russia, and India has done little to nothing, since they have no jurisdiction in India, or are simply unwilling to do anything. As of now, I've decided to dissociate from this whole topic. I hate it, and I started school. I really needed to get this off my mind. But it still kinda bites me from deep inside me, and I don't know what else I can do. I need to focus on my life, but I hate that such a dangerous man is still on the internet, with some information about me. I really don't know what I should do... He most likely forgot about me... and he can't harm me, so I'm 99% sure I'm safe. But the real problem lies with the girls that he knows about, even their personal contacts, school, location, etc. He has been known to leave India to go to Europe for God knows what. Considering most of his victims are white girls, and combined with his tendency to visit Europe, I think I would feel too guilty if something happened to one of them by Kuro. With his cover blown, he knows the gig is up. He probably has nothing to lose, so when he said he was going to Scandinavia this November, there is a strong possibility that he is going after girls he believed snitched on him, or going to meet up with one of his brainwashed minions...

This is my burner Reddit account, created so he doesn't track me and find out who I am for my own safety. I do not care about upvotes. I really don't, please trust me on that. Please share this post, so more people are aware of this monster since contacting news sites have failed and so has contacting creators. The victims and my hope is that this will become a big enough viral thing that it forces the Indian justice system to do something about Kuro...

I will not be putting the google drive link to all the info I compiled due to this subreddit's rule of not exposing the scammer's details. But if you know a journalist, creator or anyone else who can expose him to the world wide web, please do tell me who I can disclose this information to.

thank you, have a great day. I hope the rest of the people in this subreddit finds peace from whatever horrible things they had to endure from someone like Kuro.
