Ohio Right to Recover:

<https://www.cul.org/right-to-recover/>

The Right to Recover program, from the City of Columbus, offers city residents the financial resources they need to take time off of work, isolate, and recover in order to return to the workforce and mitigate the risk of spreading COVID-19. This program funding has been allocated to City of Columbus residents who have tested positive with COVID-19 within the last 14 days and are committing to quarantining in your home for 14 days after the diagnosis; are employed 20 hours a week or more and earn under 150% of the Federal Poverty Level (see chart for info).

Questions? Call us at 614-484-9111 (and select Right to Recover) or complete the form online.
