

Esquina Park Rangers vs. Los Marineros – Match Report

Date: Saturday, 29th March

Venue: Daya Vieja

Kick-Off: 10:30 AM

Referee: Mr. Graham Cockburn (debut match)

Match Duration: 60 minutes

Esquina Park Rangers hosted Los Marineros in an exciting contest at Daya Vieja, with the home side fielding a mix of players, including some over 60, to give them valuable competitive match time.

The game started with both teams testing each other, but it was Los Marineros who struck first, taking a 1-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. They doubled their advantage in the second quarter before Fred pulled one back for E.P.R., making it 2-1 at halftime.

Los Marineros stepped up their attack in the third quarter, netting twice to extend their lead to 4-1. However, Esquina responded with a well-taken penalty, converted by Stephen, reducing the deficit to 4-2 going into the final quarter.

Sensing an opportunity to turn the game around, Esquina pressed forward, putting the Marineros' defense under pressure. They were awarded another penalty, but the opposition goalkeeper made a fine save to deny Fred. Undeterred, Fred soon made amends by scoring his second of the match, bringing the score to 3-4.

Despite creating several late chances, E.P.R. couldn't find the equalizer before the final whistle, with Los Marineros edging the contest 4-3.

It was a well-fought match, with both teams playing some great football. Credit to the referee for allowing the game to flow, ensuring an enjoyable contest for all. After the match, both teams headed to Kiosk Raquel for some well-earned refreshments.
