

Grade 3 “Float Your Boat”

Problem: Design a boat using the materials you select. It must float and hold weight.

Objective: This activity provides an opportunity for hands-on collaborative work. Students think critically and creatively and learn to allow failures to cement their learning. Students will experience and follow the steps of the engineering process.

