Upcoming Professional Development Opportunity – Productive Board Relationships

November 3rd at 3:30 pm and November 4th at 7:00 am

Presented by Gary Peterson, Executive Director, OEC

The most important professional relationship that a superintendent can have is with the Board. Whether you are working with a new Board which just hired you, a Board which has just changed with the recent election, or a Board with a majority you have worked with for several years, this session will focus on key factors and strategies which can enhance your working relationship with your Board. This session will be highly interactive with discussion about your approach to working with your unique Board.
