Subject:- I took a deep breathe to calm my heartbeat!

Sweat poured down my face as I pushed through my final set, my muscles burning with determination.

I finally understood the greatness of my mind and body.

My doubts whether I would ever be in shape would have worried me before.

But FEAR of failure was what kept me going through the struggle.

So the transformation of my body began as I constantly went through the difficult things with pure determination.

After many months of training the air was thick with motivation as I exited the gym.

I knew that I was capable of anything.
