Text for Listening Comprehension

Jim lived with his parents until he was twenty-one years old, and then he got a job in the office of a big factory in another town, so he left home. He found a comfortable little flat which had two rooms, a small kitchen and a bathroom.

At first he cleaned it himself, but then he got tired of doing this. So, he decided to find someone else to clean his flat. He asked a lot of his fellow workers about how they cleaned their flats, and one of them said, "Oh, Mrs. Roper comes and cleans my flat regularly. She washes the dishes, irons my shirts and keeps the place neat and tidy. I'll introduce her to you if you like. She's a charming old lady. She does her best, but she hasn't got much energy."

"Please, ask her to come and see me," Jim answered. So the next evening Mrs. Roper came to see him, and she agreed with pleasure to come to his flat every morning for an hour.

After she had been working for Jim for two weeks, he looked at the mirror in his bedroom and thought," That mirror looks very dusty. Mrs. Roper has forgotten to clean it. I can write on it with my finger." Then he wrote a message in the dust, "I'm coughing every time I breathe because everything in this room is so dusty."

He came home at 7 o'clock that evening, went to his bedroom and looked at the mirror again. "That silly woman still hasn't cleaned it!" he said to himself.

But then he saw a bottle in front of the mirror. "I didn't put that bottle there," he thought. "Mrs. Roper must have left it." He took the bottle and looked at it carefully.

"She has written some words on it," he said to himself. He read the words. They were:

"Cough medicine."

fellow workers – коллеги introduce – представлять, знакомить dusty – пыльный

cough – кашель, кашлять
