

Hallo Aaron,

I really appreciate the video you shared of some rejections because I see so many PU artists out there not teasing the rejections like it is something that is not happening and in some way I identify myself also. It is so important to reveal the ugly truth of the game too. Honesty always wins.

NOW, let's be honest, you need help!!

Let me explain.

Upon further examination of your social media presence, I was impressed by the valuable and unique content you provide. However, I must be honest with you, brother - your audience is far too small, given the quality of your free content. By optimizing your funnels, ads, and other factors, we can drastically increase your outreach and impact.

Therefore, I would like to suggest a 15-minute call to discuss how I can help you step up your social media game. From ads to pages, and everything in between, I have the skills and expertise needed to elevate your online presence and attract a larger audience.

Let's work together and make your social media presence a force to be reckoned with. I look forward to speaking with you soon.

P.S Please find attached a landing page for a previous project i worked for in the same niche just to see that i am no bullshiting.
