

You have to see yourself as Holy – Don Wolabaugh

<https://youtu.be/IJzIMG7oj88>

As believers, recognizing and embracing their identity as holy and righteous in Christ enables them to live a holy life, and this self-perception is crucial in transforming their lives to reflect God's presence and character.

- 00:00 God, who is holy and lives inside believers, makes them holy, enabling them to live a holy life, not through legislation or effort, but through the recognition of their new identity in Him.
- 01:03 Your self-perception is crucial, and seeing yourself as holy, with Christ living inside you, is key to understanding your identity.
- 01:41 As believers, we house the presence of God, with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit living inside us, which should transform our lives to reflect heaven on earth.
- 02:24 We should recognize and worship God as holy, and understand that His holiness lives inside us, defining our identity and worth.
- 03:08 Believers stand on God's word, recognizing themselves as holy, blameless, and righteous through faith in Him, not through their actions.
- 03:44 Ready is not a feeling, but a choice that must be made to initiate change and move forward, rather than waiting for a sense of readiness.
- 04:43 Your self-perception as holy, blameless, and made right before God determines your actions and decisions, so choose to see yourself as sanctified and righteous.
- 05:40 Let's live out the message and make an impact where we live.

Summary for: <https://youtu.be/IJzIMG7oj88> by Noiz — YouTube Summary With ChatGPT & Claude

 Q: How can I start seeing myself as holy and blameless?

A: Agree with God's declaration of your righteousness, focus on Christ in you as the source of holiness, and stand on God's word rather than others' opinions or your feelings.

 Q: Why is it important to view myself as a saint rather than a sinner?

A: Seeing yourself as a saint aligns with God's perspective, as evidenced by His addressing believers as "saints" in Ephesus, Corinth, and Thimothy, which empowers you to live a holy life.

Living a Holy Life

 Q: How does recognizing God's presence in me affect my holiness?

A: Acknowledging that the holy God lives inside you and that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit reinforces your identity as holy and motivates you to live accordingly.

Understanding Holiness

 Q: How does God's perspective on my holiness differ from my actions?

A: Your holiness is based on the price God paid and Christ in you, not your actions or feelings, making it crucial to align your self-perception with God's view.

 Q: What's the difference between "getting holy" and "living holy"?

A: Focus on living holy rather than trying to "get holy," recognizing that your holiness stems from God's presence in you, not from your efforts to achieve it.