For the Teacher

Purpose: The Traffic Light Exit Ticket is a reflective tool that allows students to express their understanding of the day's lesson and communicate their learning needs to the teacher. This process encourages self-assessment and provides the teacher with valuable feedback for planning future instruction.

Structure of the Exit Ticket

1. Understanding Level: Students indicate their overall understanding of the lesson by choosing a traffic light color.

2. Reflection: Students reflect on what they learned, what they found challenging, and any questions they still have.

3. Next Steps: Students suggest what they need next to enhance their understanding, whether it's more practice, a one-on-one meeting, or additional resources.

Tips for Implementing the Student-Initiated Exit Ticket

1. Consistent Use: Use the exit ticket regularly so students become comfortable with self-assessment and reflection.

2. Clear Instructions: Explain how to fill out the exit ticket and the importance of honesty in their responses.

3. Feedback: Review the exit tickets and provide timely feedback or follow-up based on student needs.

4. Safe Environment: Foster a supportive classroom environment where students feel safe to express their true understanding and challenges.

5. Incorporate Technology: For tech-savvy classrooms, consider using digital forms or apps to collect and organize exit ticket responses.
