

FACULTY OF LAW
Charles University

European Doctorate
in Law & Economics

Faculty of Law, Charles University, together with the European Doctorate in Law & Economics

are seeking PhD candidates with a research focus on

- 1. Conflict and Post-conflict Studies (Prof. Veronika Bílková)
- 2. Experiments on Contract Design or Law and Technology (Dr. Sven Hoeppner)
- 3. Legal Framework for Deployment of Nuclear Power Plants in Central Europe (Prof. Jakub Handrlica)
- 4. Experiments on Discrimination or Disparities in Judicial Decisions (Doc. Josef Montag)

- Strong candidates can be awarded scholarships up to 32000 CZK (subject to funds availability).
- Candidates must apply and be admitted to both doctoral programs EDLE and Faculty of Law, Charles University, and are required to pursue both programs.
- The degree is awarded upon successful dissertation defense by both programs under a Cotutelle agreement.
- Candidates are invited to informally consult their dissertation topics with the respective supervisor and should indicate their preferred dissertation topic and supervisor in the application documents.
- Projects envisaging publications in top-quality WoS journals will have a preference in the selection process.
- Candidates may be required to perform research assistance work related to their advisor's research projects.
- For deadlines and details see www.edle-phd.eu and www.prf.cuni.cz/en/phd-in-english.