InterMed and Santa Fe College Announce InterMed Scholarship

Gainesville, FL, October 1, 2019—InterMed is proud to announce a partnership with Santa Fe College BioMedical Equipment Technician Program to offer an InterMed scholarship for eligible, full-time student applicants. This scholarship will cover annual tuition and books for up to 15 credit hours per semester, to qualifying Santa Fe College BioMedical Equipment Technician students who meet specific requirements.

The InterMed Scholarship is open to individuals who are full-time students and turn in a completed application that outlines their financial need, GPA of 3.0 or above, and have no disciplinary issues.

The long-time partnership between InterMed and Santa Fe College BioMedical Equipment Technician Program continues to support the education and career possibilities of up and coming talent. With a shared vision of changing the world for the better, both InterMed and Santa Fe College start right in the heart of the community.

Through the generosity of InterMed's dedicated employees, the InterMed Scholarship is both employee and company driven. For every donation that an employee gives, InterMed is providing matching donations up to $25K. This self-sufficient scholarship will benefit students and future industry workers for years to come.

The InterMed Group is a premier provider of integrated healthcare technology management services, comprehensive equipment planning, and strategic coverage of key divisions within your business. InterMed tailors services to enhance the overall quality, cost, timeliness, and confidence in our clients' technology management.
