

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: May 31 2024

Welcome to the “App”! Thank you for visiting the App. We respect your privacy and appreciate your trust and confidence in us.

This privacy policy (“Privacy Policy”) explains the when, how and why when it comes to processing of your personal information on the App for information introductions, as well as any enquiries submitted through the App and sets out your choices and rights in relation to that information. Please read this carefully – it is very important for you to understand how we collect and use your information, and how you can manage it.

If you do not agree to the processing of your personal information in the way this Privacy Policy describes, please do not provide your information when requested and stop using the App. By continuing to use the App or our Services you are acknowledging our rules regarding your personal information as described in this Privacy Policy.

1. Children

Children must not use the App for any purpose, except where their parent or guardian has provided consent. By children, we mean users under the age of 14 years old.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children for any purpose. If you believe that we have personal information of a child without parental/guardian consent, or if you are the parent or guardian of the user and wish to withdraw consent, please contact us and we will delete such information.

2. The Types of Personal Information We Collect

The following is a summary of the types of personal information we use:

- 1) the type, version, brand, language and operating system of device;
- 2) the type and operator of network(such as Mac address);
- 3) email address;
- 4) device identifiers(such as IDFA, IDFV);
- 5) behavioral usage of the App.

3. How We Use Your Personal Information

This section provides detail on why we collect personal information from you.

- 1) To maintain the safety, security, and integrity of our Services, for example fraud detection.
- 2) To market our Services (including any new features, as well as any existing, new or related products) to potential and existing users, including through in app messaging and push notifications.
- 3) To perform internal operations necessary to develop, provide, maintain, and improve our Services, including providing customer and technical support, troubleshooting, conducting data analysis, testing, and research.

- 4) To understand how you interact with our Services and personalize the content (including advertising).
- 5) To comply with legal requirements and/or to investigate or address claims or disputes relating to your use of the Services.

4. How We Share Your Personal Information

Only where reasonably necessary will we share your personal information. We share your personal information with service providers, companies within our corporate group, regulators, judicial authorities and law enforcement agencies, and other third parties for safety, security, or compliance with the law.

5. The Security of Your Personal Information

We are committed to maintaining the privacy and integrity of your personal information no matter where it is stored. We have information security and access policies that limit access to our systems and technology, and we protect data through the use of technological protection measures such as encryption.

Unfortunately, although we have implemented and maintained reasonable measures to protect your personal information, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. In the event of a security incident such as a personal data breach, we will initiate an emergency plan to prevent the magnification of the security incident.

6. Data Retention

We will retain your information for as long as is needed to provide you the Service. We do not keep your data for longer than is necessary unless we are required to do so under law.

7. Third Party Link Disclaimer

Links to external, or third party websites, are provided solely for your convenience. Links taken to other App are done so at your own risk and we accept no liability for any linked App or their content. When you access an external App or website, keep in mind that we have no control over its content.

Any link from us to an external App or website does not imply or mean that we endorse or accept any responsibility for the content or the use of such App or website. We do not give any representation regarding the quality, safety, suitability, or reliability of any external App or websites or any of the content or materials contained in them.

When visiting external App or websites, users should review those websites' privacy policies and other terms of use to learn more about, what, why and how they collect and use any personally identifiable information.
