-; ★ `--PERSONALITY -; ★ `--

Liū Qiang is generally good-hearted, loyal, and determined. She is also nurturing, thoughtful, and friendly. Liū can sometimes be selfish and violent; she tends to keep her own pain and trauma to herself. She makes sure to overwork herself go be strong for Wukong and Macaque and her friends, she tends to let her anger take over so sometimes she doesn't think when she fights, but she does plan most of the time, but there are times her anger is to much so she attacks blindly, She is also insecure, sensitive, and perceptive. She is a leader, but can also be soft-spoken and tender-hearted. Liū may be serious but she tends to be smug and cheeky to get under her enemy's skin but also to lighten the mood especially with training with MK and Wukong.

-; ★ `--BACKSTORY/BACKGROUND-; ★ `--

Liū Qiang, born and raised on Flower Fruit Mountain born around the same time Wukong was born from his stone, grew up along side the Monkey King and The Six Eared Macaque, becoming close with them, during this time she was being trained under an elder monkey by the name of Jiajun who took her in as student and adopted daughter, he trained her with Sun Wukong and Macaque. When the three got older , they fought side by side with each other, Macaque was the Warrior, Liū Qiang the Soilder, Went on a mission with her Mentor, both were attacked, but she ended up losing her Mentor brutally to a demon. When she got older a young boy heard the stories about her in his village and begged the Soilder to train him, which she accepted but, she lost her student KC brutally to the same demon she lost her Mentor to, During this time , she also became a member of the brotherhood due to being dragged in by Wukong along side Macaque, But the brotherhood failed to stop the Jade Emperor and the Celestial Realm, her and her brotherhood failed, and Wukong went on his Journey which she quietly followed alongside him due to not wanting to stay on flower fruit mountain waiting for him to return. The two became closer during this time even when they fought and bickered they love and care for eachother.
