

Pizzas for the LINGUAE Seminar

Note: I (Philippe) changed the address to 24 rue Lhomond, but this might be a bad idea: the delivery man won't find Pavillon-Jardin anyway.

- We order with <https://www.just-eat.fr>
- For payment, choose the GAUDEFROY card. In order to validate the order, you will need to enter the validation number that Vincent Gaudefroy is sent by email. You need to get this number from him. The easiest way is by the phone in your office: you can call Vincent at extension 2698. If Vincent is out of the office, you should coordinate with Philippe in advance so that you can pay with his card.
- Delivery is now at 24 rue Lhomond, the official entrance of the relevant part of ENS (29 rue d'Ulm is not an official entrance and is closed to non-ENS members). We usually select a delivery time around 12.45 to be sure that the food gets there on time (by 1pm).
- If you are in charge of pizza, please make sure your phone number appears on just-eat so the pizza delivery person can call you when they reach Pavillon Jardin.
- The order can be placed in advance (such as the day before) to avoid last-minute surprises
- For people with dietary restrictions, there should be at least

1 vegetarian option

1 vegan option

- It might be a good idea to assess which pizzas remain uneaten so they do not get ordered again.

- There should be two standard notes along these lines:

–Food

TRES IMPORTANT:

1. Au moins 2 des 3 pizzas végétariennes doivent être SANS fromage.
2. Couper les pizzas en 8 et NON en 4. Merci.

–Delivery

Livrer en Salle de Réunion du Pavillon Jardin, Institut Jean-Nicod. Appeler en arrivant.

- Sometimes there are '2+1' offers (1 free pizza if you order 2 of the same sort); if possible, take advantage of these.

- Deliziosa Pizza will often throw in a beverage or two (Coke), but they don't do this when there is an additional sale on the Just Eat website, so if there's a deal (e.g. buy one get one free), you should also order drinks.

Note: Brian mentioned to me (Philippe) that his favorite pizza, with chicken, had disappeared... Today's pizzas were almost all eaten up, but it might just be that there were many people. Salvador enjoyed the cheese pizza.

Survey of Linguae people's tastes:

Preferences of people: Lebanese>Pizza>Sushis

We received complains regarding sushis because they are not easy to eat. Solution: offer paper plates with sushis for people to have more plates if they wish?

IDEas for next meals: tapas, galettes (?)
