Bead bracelets, keychains and bracelet keychains June and July for all

Promotional Information

Describe your business, farm, or products for Market promotion. Include growing practices, awards, favorites, history, or a link to your website's About page:

I first got beads at a farm I went to for a party and started making one and I found I really enjoyed it. I got a LOT for Christmas and started just making myself bracelets for fun. But then a co-worker of mine asked to buy one and I ended up selling quite a few to them, and then I realized that people actually like the stuff I make, so I started selling them to friends, and now I want to do my first market. Production is at my dining room table with my little sister who makes her own for her backpack (I don't sell the ones she makes lol) my favorite one to make is the star keychains or the bracelet keychains because they are so adorable.
