

Restorative Practices for Educators

"All humans are hardwired to connect. Just as we need food, shelter and clothing, human beings also need strong and meaningful relationships to thrive." -International Institute for Restorative Practices (IIRP)

Outcomes:

- Foster Positive Classroom & School Culture
- Learn Fundamental Theories & Practices for Engaging
- Balancing High Expectations While Being Supportive and Providing Direct Feedback
- Foster Accountability and the Continuum of Restorative Practices
- Resolving Common Conflicts Effectively
- Learn to Build Social Capital, Resolve Social Problems & Respond When Harm Occurs with Circles

This event addresses topics of Introduction to Restorative Practices and Using Circles Effectively.