

Chapter 6 Crafting Video Texts

1. Partner discussion:

- a. - How could you use video texts in your classroom?

2. Writing Process

- a. Prewriting/Drafting
- b. Revising and Editing
- c. Publishing

3. Elements of Craft for Video Text

- a. See pages 22 and 111 in Crafting Digital Writing by Troy Hicks

4. Quality vs. Junkie Video Texts

- a. All example shared in this presentation are ...

5. Class Discussion: What Is a Video Text?

6. Class Discussion: Are these video texts?

- a. Book Review
- b. Math Tutorial
- c. Talking Puppet

- d. Home Movie
- e. Picture Book
- f. Puppet Pal
- g. Cut Outs 1
- h. Cut Outs 2

7. Types of Video Text

- a. Narrative
- b. Informational
- c. Argumentative

i. See page 109 in Crafting Digital Writing by Troy Hicks for more examples

8. Partner Discussion

- a. How could you use video texts in your classroom?

Resources Used

Online animoto.com littlebirdtales.com goanimate.com wevideo.com	IOS Educreations Puppet Pal Toontastic Puppet Pals Sock Puppets
---	---

MAPS

Mode: Presentation

Media: published videos using multiple video creators and google doc

Audience: Teachers interested in Video Texts

Purpose: To inform how difficult making video texts are, what goes into a video text and resources for making a video text

Situation: This was one of the final assignments for this class. My group was summarizing a book in front of the author and we wanted to inform and entertain without restating everything in the book.