

English Language Self-Assessment

B1 – Intermediate Level

You can understand the main points of everyday workplace communication and handle routine emails, calls, and meetings. You can express your ideas clearly in familiar professional situations and write simple, structured business messages.

B2 – Upper-Intermediate Level

You can follow extended discussions, presentations, and reports, and actively participate in professional conversations. You communicate fluently, present arguments clearly, and write detailed, well-structured business documents.

C1 – Advanced Level

You can understand complex professional materials and contribute confidently to high-level meetings and negotiations. You speak persuasively, adapt to different stakeholders, and produce sophisticated, precise written communication.

Full descriptions of all levels are available for download before payment.