Aged Care Volunteering

Are you looking for a job but they all require work experience? The answer may be volunteering.

Through volunteering you can get some unpaid work experience to put on your CV, learn new skills, make new friends and contribute to your community.

Woburn Masonic Care Rest Home

1 - Short of carers. Developing a work exp programme covering all roles within Aged Care. Potential to lead to a permanent role.

2 - Helping hands - Community Aged Care Support - needing readers, food service delivery, resident travel to and from events/activities/meals, conversations with residents etc.

1, 2, or 3 hours a week, build care experience, community service projects very rewarding and opportunity to make a difference

The value for students is that they build skills in verbal conversation with others (rather than text), teamwork, time management, patience, the importance of engagement in aged care, and the knowledge of what you did will remain a vivid memory for someone.

If you are interested in this unpaid volunteer work in elder care please complete this Google Form:
